POLICY FOR SLOW AND ADVANCED LEARNERS

MNR College of Pharmacy is a premiere institution, imparting quality teaching learning to learners from diverse background enrolled to the institution. Consequently, the learning interest and pace of every student is different. Therefore, some are slow learners and whereas some are advanced learners. It is very important to identify the learners and plan to deliver student oriented teaching-learning accordingly.

SLOW LEARNERS

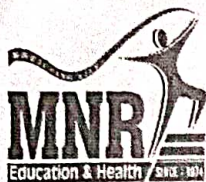

Slow learners are identified on the basis of their performance in sessional examinations and based on result analysis of semester/annual examinations and given special attention. Remedial Classes are organised for such slow learners. The remedial classes are conducted for backlog courses as well as regular courses. The students who failed (less than 50% marks) in University examination (for backlog courses) and sessional examinations (for regular courses) are considered as slow learners.

These slow learners are supported with special tutorial classes during the semester or academic year after the first sessional examination. The subject teacher shall identify the students requiring tutorial classes in his/her subject. Upon consultation with other subject teachers, the subject teachers shall prepare a schedule for the tutorial classes and avail approval from the head of the institution. The tutorial classes should be conducted without any disruption of regular classes. The second sessional examination shall be monitored for improvement for the student.

Remedial classes shall be conducted for each course after declaration of results by the Osmania University. The result analysis shall be prepared by the subject teachers and submitted to the Head of the Institution. If any subject/course has less than 90% pass percentage or more than 10 students failed, then the course/subject teachers or the head of the institution shall propose for remedial classes and prepare the session plan for the remedial classes. Remedial classes shall be scheduled by the academic council/ course teachers with the approval of the head of the institution. The remedial classes should be conducted without
